

First County Bank promotes Maciejewska and Malizia to assistant VPs

By First County Bank

Grazyna Maciejewska and Todd Malizia, First County Bank branch managers, were recently promoted to assistant vice presidents. “Grazyna and Todd are both exceptional leaders and have rightly earned their promotions to assistant vice presidents,” said Katherine Harris, senior vice president retail banking at First County Bank. “Each has cultivated a sense of confidence and purpose with their teams by demonstrating natural leadership skills at the branch level and within their communities.”

Maciejewska began her banking career in Poland, graduating from Economical College in Bialystok in 1985 with an associate’s degree in economics. In August 1990, she was promoted to chief economist at Lomza Agricultural Bank. When she moved to the United States she continued her career at a regional bank.

She began working at First County Bank in 2004, quickly moving up the ranks from customer service representative to teller supervisor to assistant branch manager and then branch manager of the Springdale branch at 1110 Hope St. in Stamford. Maciejewska lives in Ridgefield with her husband and son.

“Grazyna is a wonderful person, volunteering at the Greenwich chapter of the American Red Cross as well as working closely with Polish schools in the area and the community at large,” added Harris.

Todd Malizia has been with First County Bank since 2004, when he worked as assistant branch manager in Darien from 2004-2006 and then the Norwalk branch from 2006-2008. In January 2009, he was promoted to branch manager of the Westport office located at 1260 Post Road East.

“Todd has proved time and again to be an asset to the company and the branch team, directly contributing to the prosperity of the branches he has worked in,” said Harris.

Prior to joining First County Bank, Malizia worked for Bank of America in its consumer/retail banking division. Before that he was a securities broker and later worked in the area of equity derivatives at Morgan Stanley. He also worked for Procter & Gamble in Sydney, Australia.

Malizia was a member of SBLI President's Council, the Savings Bank Life Insurance Co.'s top sales award in 2008, and has been a member of the Exchange Club of North Stamford since 2002.

The Darien resident earned bachelor's degrees in economics and mathematics from Boston University in 1998. And he is working on a master's degree in mathematics at Fairfield University.
