SANDRA GREER AND ANNAMARIE BOCCUZZI JOIN FIRST COUNTY ADVISORS --
*The Investment, Wealth Management and Trust Division Of First County Bank

STAMFORD, Conn., May 12, 2014 -- First County Advisors, the Investment, Wealth Management and Trust Division of First County Bank announces the recent addition of Sandra (Sandy) Greer, vice president trust and investment officer, and AnnaMarie S. Boccuzzi, estate and trust officer. First County Advisors' acquisition of these two talented individuals illustrates First County Advisors commitment to its investments, trust and estate business and positions the division to provide a robust full-service operation to serve the needs of its customers.

"With the addition of Sandy and AnnaMarie, First County Advisors demonstrates its commitment to its business and that we're in it for the long-haul. At this time, many trust and estate businesses are shrinking their staff while we're expanding," said Reyno Giallongo, First County Bank's chairman and CEO. "Sandy brings a solid background of investment and trust management from her years of experience and career success in portfolio management. AnnaMarie brings years of experience managing various trust relationships including testamentary and living trusts, rollover IRAs, and individual client accounts. We look forward to their contributions which complement and further enrich the expertise of our First County Advisors Division."

Left to Right: Sandra Greer, vice president trust and investment officer, AnnaMarie S. Boccuzzi, estate and trust officer, join First County Advisors, the wealth management and trust division of First County Bank.

About Sandy Greer:

Sandy Greer will be responsible for providing investment and financial management for individuals, families, businesses and not-for-profit organizations. Greer has been engaged in the financial services industry since 1980 and brings considerable personal and institutional investment experience to First County Bank. Sandy will assist clients in defining specific investment and financial objectives, review and analysis of existing investments and the development of strategies to meet short and long-term financial goals. Prior to joining First County Bank, Greer was a Sr. Portfolio Manager with BNY Mellon Wealth Management in Greenwich, CT and New York City from 1996 to 2014.

Greer contributes her time to local organizations supporting those in need. She is currently a board member for The Marvin/Under One Roof in Norwalk, CT which provides both affordable, elderly congregate housing and a (pre)school readiness program. Greer also serves as a volunteer with Junior Achievement of Southwest CT, teaching financial literacy, work readiness and entrepreneurship.
