2014 NORWALK SUMMER CONCERT SERIES KICKS OFF JUNE 25
Music of The Beatles, Woodstock, Eagles, Johnny Cash and Jimmy Buffett Featured
-- Sponsored by First County Bank --

STAMFORD, Conn., June 11, 2014 -- The 2014 First County Bank Summer Concert Series at Calf Pasture Beach kicks off at 6 pm on Wednesday, June 25, commencing with a Classic Car Show Beach Cruise organized by The Coachmen, and continues every Wednesday through September 3. This will be the sixth consecutive year First County Bank sponsors the concert series, which typically attracts 1000 to 1500 people. The sponsorship ensures all 11 concerts are free and open to the public.

The 45th anniversary of Woodstock and the 50th anniversary of The Beatles are the celebrated theme for this year's concert series. Featured performances by tribute bands and regional rock and roll bands include Tim Currie's Motown Band, Jimmy and The Parrots (Jimmy Buffett), The Cast of Beatlemania (The Beatles), Billy Genuario and Destiny, The Royal Kings, ABBA Girlz (ABBA), Cash Is King (Johnny Cash), Déjà vu (50s and 60s), Desert Highway (Eagles), Back to the Garden (Woodstock 45th anniversary) and Keith Marron's Whistleville Band.

“First County Bank is pleased to once again sponsor Norwalk Recreation and Parks Department’s summer concert series at Calf Pasture Beach. This year they are providing an excellent line up of bands celebrating Woodstock, The Beatles and my favorite, Jimmy Buffett,” said Rey Giallongo, CEO and chairman of First County Bank. “Sponsoring this concert series is just one example of the many ways the Bank supports organizations and communities throughout lower Fairfield County. We thank the City of Norwalk’s mayor, Harry W. Rilling, and their Recreation and Parks’ director, Michael Mocciae, for sharing our commitment toward the betterment of our community.”

“As Mayor of the City of Norwalk, and on behalf of our residents, I express our appreciation to First County Bank for its continued sponsorship of the Summer Concert Series organized by Norwalk’s Recreation & Parks Department. The generosity of this community-minded corporation allows us to provide great music and entertainment for the enjoyment of local residents of all ages. I look forward to year’s concerts at Calf Pasture Beach,” said Mayor Harry W. Rilling.

Calf Pasture Beach Park is located at 69 Calf Pasture Beach Rd. in Norwalk. For updates and additional information call the Norwalk Recreation and Parks Office at 203-854-7807. All concerts (except Jimmy and The Parrots) have a rain date of the following day and except for the July 3 fireworks and concert program, which will be held on July 5 in case of inclement weather. For cancellation information call 203-854-7938. Parking at Calf Pasture Beach is free for residents with a Norwalk Resident Pass on their cars. Without a Norwalk Resident Pass the parking fee is $10 per car. For the July 3 Independence Day fireworks display which typically attracts more than 20,000 spectators, a fee of $25 is charged for cars without a Norwalk Resident Pass while cars with the pass will be allowed in free.
