

Fairfield County Business Journal
Week of December 7, 2015

FIRST COUNTY BANK APPOINTS BERTA

Stamford-based First County Bank appointed Thomas J. Berta to its retail banking division as vice president, manager of branch sales and service. In this position, Berta's responsibilities include providing guidance and service management to retail banking and for savings bank life insurance functions. Berta previously served as vice president and district manager at Wells Fargo Bank in Norwalk. He holds a master's degree in financial management from Pace University and a bachelor's degree in economics from George Mason University.

Thomas J. Berta