

Jagjiwan Singh joins First County Bank as Assistant Vice President, Business Development Officer

STAMFORD, CT - First County Bank is pleased to announce the recent hiring of Jagjiwan "Singh" Singh, who joins the Bank's Business Banking Division as assistant vice president, business development officer. First County Bank's addition of Singh demonstrates the Bank's commitment to further meet the needs of its commercial customers and the business community.

"Singh will be originating and growing commercial relationships for the Bank. He will contribute to the Bank's business banking and sales team with his strong community and business relationships." said Reyno Giallongo, First County Bank's chairman and CEO.

Prior to joining First County Bank, Singh was branch manager at Wells Fargo Bank. Earlier, Jagjiwan was branch manager for RBS Citizens, N.A. in Stamford. He has spent most of his banking career responsible for sales and service of business and commercial customers. Before moving to Connecticut, Singh worked for Starwood Corporation where he worked with international and diplomatic clientele in New Delhi, India. Singh has over 8 years of banking and management experience.

Singh is fluent in English, Hindi, Punjabi and Urdu. He is an active member of Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji Foundation in Norwalk. He has a B.A. in Economics from the University of Connecticut, Stamford. In addition, he has extensive professional financial education. Singh is a resident of East Norwalk, CT where he lives with his wife and their two children. He enjoys spending time with his family and volunteering in the community.