Henry Michael Crawford, First Vice President at First County Bank, Named President of the Rotary Club of Stamford

STAMFORD, Conn., Nov. 24, 2014 – Henry Michael “Mike” Crawford, first vice president at First County Bank, has recently been appointed President of the Rotary Club of Stamford, CT. Michael serves on the board of the Stamford Rotary and has previously held the positions of secretary and vice president.

“My goal as the President of the Stamford CT Rotary is to increase awareness in our local community about Rotary and its commitment to wipe out polio worldwide and thereby create positive, lasting change in our communities and around the world,” said Mike Crawford. “These core values are what have kept Rotary strong for over 100 years.”

Mike has over thirty years of experience in bank operations and currently manages the Retail Operations, Loan Servicing and Bank Secrecy Act Anti-Money Laundering departments at First County Bank. He is a graduate of the Connecticut School of Finance and Management and the National School of Banking at Fairfield University.

“Mike’s commitment to Rotary is one example of First County Bank employees’ dedication to helping others in our community and beyond,” said Rey Giallongo, Chairman and CEO of First County Bank. “We are proud to have Mike serve as President of the Stamford Rotary Club.”
