First County Bank New Canaan Branch Welcomes the Community to an Open House

STAMFORD, Conn., Oct. 13, 2014 -- First County Bank is pleased to hold an Open House at their New Canaan Branch to give residents the opportunity to meet its team of community bankers. The Community Open House will take place from October 17 through 27 during business hours at the New Canaan Branch located at 95 Park Street, New Canaan, CT.

Aitza Cabrera, New Canaan branch manager, will be present to introduce her staff. The Open House will feature a drawing to win one of four $100 gift certificates redeemable at participating New Canaan Chamber of Commerce merchants. Entries can be completed at the branch during the Open House period and the drawing will be held Wednesday, October 29. Light refreshments will be served each day.

First County Bank executive management, Rey Giallongo, chairman and CEO, and Robert Granata, president and COO, will be available to meet New Canaan branch visitors on Friday Oct. 24 between 11am and 1pm. First County Advisors, the Bank's wealth management division, will be available on October 22 and 23 at the branch to meet with interested people and schedule appointments.

"First County Bank is committed to serving communities in our area, knowing our customers by name and providing exceptional service," said Reyno Giallongo, chairman and CEO of First County Bank. "Bob and I are excited to participate in the Open House and are eager to meet the public. This is our 24th year of bank operations in New Canaan and we are affirming our commitment to being its community bank."
