Jevera Kaye Hennessey Joins First County Bank Board of Directors

Stamford, Conn., Feb. 16, 2016 – First County Bank is pleased to announce that Jevera Kaye Hennessey, principal in the law firm of Kaye & Hennessey, LLC, has been named to First County Bank’s board of directors. She was officially appointed to the board at the January 27, 2016 meeting. In addition to Hennessey’s election to the board, she has served as a corporator at First County Bank since June, 2014.

“Jevera brings substantial community knowledge and expertise to our board. Her business and leadership experience in the legal profession coupled with her community involvement makes her an outstanding addition to our board of directors,” said Rey Giallongo, First County Bank chairman and CEO.

Jevera Kaye Hennessey is a principal in the law firm Kaye & Hennessey, LLC, located in Greenwich, CT. Her practice is primarily in the areas of estate planning and estate and trust administration. Hennessey is a past president of the Greenwich Bar Association and a past member of the Board of Directors of the Fairfield County Bar Association. She is a former chair of the Estates and Probate Committee of the Fairfield County Bar Association and has been a frequent estate planning course instructor in the town of Greenwich Adult Continuing Education program. Jevera has also lectured on probate and estate planning topics under the auspices of the Greenwich Bar Association, the Fairfield County Bar Association, Connecticut Bar Association, and other private groups, and has taught Trusts and Estates law at the Connecticut Institute for Paralegal Studies.
