Richard M. Evanko, Jr. joins First County Bank as Vice President, Business Banking Manager

STAMFORD, Conn., Aug. 3, 2015 -- First County Bank is pleased to announce the recent addition of Richard "Rich" Evanko, Jr. who joins the Bank's Business Banking Division as Vice President, Business Banking Manager. First County Bank's addition of Rich demonstrates the Bank's commitment to grow its business banking division and to further meet the needs of its small business customers and the business community.

"We continually look to enhance our team by recruiting business banking and sales talent. Rich will be managing the goals and initiatives for the Business Development Team which originates business relationships for the Bank." said Reyno Giallongo, First County Bank's chairman and CEO.

As Vice President, Business Banking Manager, Rich is responsible for directing the small business group, originating business, and building relationships with current business customers. "Being a life-long Stamford resident I take pride in helping local businesses grow and succeed. I appreciate the fact that I am able to give back to a community that has given me so much. I look forward to continuing to work in this community and being part of First County Bank's growth strategy in Fairfield County."

Prior to joining First County Bank, Rich was first vice president and senior relationship manager at Webster Bank in Stamford, where he was responsible for business acquisition and retention. Rich spent time with HSBC where he was vice president and relationship manager responsible for sales and service of business customers. Earlier, he spent five years with JP Morgan Chase Bank as an assistant vice president and business banker. Rich has over ten years in the banking industry serving the local market.

In the local business community, Rich is active with the Stamford Chamber of Commerce where he is Chairman of the Young Professionals Council and on the Board of Directors. He is also involved as a member of Childcare Learning Center's Finance Committee and the United Way. Rich attended the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, MA. He also has Moody's Commercial Lending Certification. Rich is a lifelong resident of Stamford, CT, where he lives with his wife and two children. He is an avid golfer and enjoys making homemade wine and spending time with his family.
