Grazyna Maciejewska

Grazyna Maciejewska, a First County Bank branch manager in Stamford, was recently promoted to assistant vice president.

Ms. Maciejewska began her banking career in Poland, graduating from Economical College in Bialystok in 1985 with an associate's degree in economics. In August 1990, she was promoted to chief economist at Lomza Agricultural Bank. When she moved to the United States she continued her career at a regional bank.

She began working at First County Bank in 2004, quickly moving up the ranks from customer service representative to teller supervisor to assistant branch manager and then branch manager of the Springdale branch at 1110 Hope Street in Stamford. Ms. Maciejewska lives in Ridgefield with her husband and son.

She has volunteered at the Greenwich chapter of the American Red Cross and works closely with Polish schools in the area and with the community at large.

First County Bank, headquartered in Stamford, is an independent mutual community bank with 15 branches in Stamford, Greenwich, Darien, New Canaan, Norwalk and Westport.
