First County Bank has announced that Grazyna Maciejewska, assistant vice president, is now a Mortgage Loan Originator.

Previously, she was Branch Manager of the First County Bank branch at 1110 Hope St. in the Springdale neighborhood of Stamford.

First County Bank's chairman and CEO Reyno Giallongo said in a statement, "Grazyna brings a solid background of experience in mortgage banking and providing exceptional customer service through her years at First County Bank as branch manager. She has knowledge in mortgage origination for home purchase, first time buyers, and refinance. We look forward to continuing Graynza's focus on mortgage origination which further enriches the expertise of our First County Bank Residential Mortgage Division."

Maciejewska works closely with a network of real estate, financial, and building professionals throughout Connecticut. She started her banking career at First County Bank in 2004 and served as branch manager, licensed life insurance provider and residential mortgage loan originator. She has over 11 years of experience in all aspects of mortgage origination from home purchase, first-time home buyers, refinance, home equity and renovation lending.

Maciejewska is affiliated with several nonprofit and community organizations which include: Stamford Chamber of Commerce, American Red Cross Greenwich Chapter, and works closely with the local Polish community in education and other initiatives.

Maciejewska earned an Associate's Degree in Economics from Economical College in Bialystock, Poland. She graduated from the Connecticut School of Finance and Management and received the SBLI/Vantis Life President's Council Award in 2009.

Grazyna lives in Ridgefield with her husband and son. In her spare time, Grazyna likes to read, swim and participate in all outdoor activities.
