

July 1, 2010

Duque awarded Lifetime Achievement by Yerwood Center

Camilo I. Duque Jr., an assistant vice president and branch manager at First County Bank, was recently awarded the Hearts of the Community Lifetime Achievement Award at the first annual Hearts Ball event, hosted by the Yerwood Center and held on June 19 at the Italian Center. The event was established in order to pay homage to the “hearts” of the community who have given their time, effort and kind hearted acts to people throughout Fairfield County.

“Camilo has exemplified his dedication to the community through his involvement in many volunteer activities,” said First County Bank Executive Vice President Katherine A. Harris. He holds active memberships to the Greater Stamford Hispanic Chamber of Commerce and volunteers at various Hispanic community events and causes.

Duque, 41, has given his time to area youth by being a mentor at the Toquam Magnet School and at the Yerwood Center where he actively volunteers on a banking education program teaching the importance of savings and planning for children ages 8 to 12.

“Camilo is a kind hearted individual who has been inspired to do everything he can to enhance the community. These same qualities make Camilo a valuable asset to the bank and a trusted banker to our customers,” added Harris. “He is driven to create opportunities for others to succeed.” Duque, who started working at First County Bank in 1987, currently manages the bank’s 2950 Summer St. branch.

The Norwalk resident who is married graduated from the Connecticut School of Finance and Management in 2003. He attended Norwalk Community College and is a graduate of Stamford High School.

The Yerwood Center, located at 90 Fairfield Ave. in Stamford, is focused on providing youth and the area’s diverse community with education and personal development opportunities that will empower them to reach their full potential and contribute to society. For additional information, please visit <http://www.yerwoodcenter.com/>.

First County Bank, headquartered in Stamford, Conn., is an independent mutual community bank with

Camilo Duque

15 branches in Stamford, Greenwich, Darien, New Canaan, Norwalk and Westport offering deposit products, mortgages, trust and investment services, business banking services and online banking. First County Bank has assets in excess of $1.3 billion. For additional information, visit www.firstcountybank.com.

© Copyright by StamfordPlus.com. Some articles and pictures posted on our website, as indicated by their bylines, were submitted as press releases and do not necessarily reflect the position and opinion of StamfordPlus.com, Stamford Plus magazine, Canaiden LLC or any of its associated entities. Articles may have been edited for brevity and grammar.