If necessary, we will update this Agreement to incorporate new functionalities. Your use of same will signify your acceptance of the terms and conditions governing these new functionality types.

UNDER APPLICABLE FEDERAL REGULATIONS, THERE ARE LIMITS ON THE NUMBER OF TRANSFERS OR WITHDRAWALS WE MAY PROCESS ON CERTAIN DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS. No more than six (6) transfers for withdrawals that are pre-authorized, automatic, online, telephonic, or by means other than those made in person may be made from certain savings or money market deposit accounts to another account at the Bank or to a third party in any monthly statement cycle. Each transfer through Online Banking from certain savings or money market deposit accounts is counted as one of the six (6) limited transfers you are permitted each statement period. If you violate the six (6) transfer or withdrawal limit three (3) times within a twelve (12) month rolling period, we will close your account and the funds in the account may be returned to you or transferred to your transaction account.

6. Transactions Modes and Processing

Transfers may be processed in different ways. Sufficient funds must be available at the time the transaction is requested. Options for transfers include Immediate, Future Dated (One Time) and Recurring. When scheduling a transfer, also note the difference between the "Transfer Date" date and the "Deliver By/Delivery Date" date.

"Immediate": If I designate an external transfer as "Immediate", the Processing Date will be the next business day. The "Processing Date" is the first day of the processing period. Depending upon how the it is confirmed, processing may take three (3) to five (5) business days. "Immediate" transfers may not be canceled for any reason once made as funds are immediately deducted from my checking account. An internal transfer will process on that same day.

"Future Dated (One Time)": If I designate a transfer as a "Future Dated (One Time)" transaction, I may request that a transfer be made on a future date that I may designate up to three hundred sixty four (364) days in advance. The Processing Date will be the effective date I entered for the transfer, or the next business day should the effective date fall on a Saturday, Sunday, bank holiday or federal or Connecticut state holiday. Sufficient funds must be available by midnight of the night before the Processing Date, but will be deducted from my checking account on the actual Processing Date. "Future Dated (One Time)" transactions may be canceled or changed up until 12:00 midnight of the night before the Processing Date.

"Recurring": If I designate a transfer as a "Recurring", I may request that the transaction be made in the same amount to a designated account on a specified regular basis (i.e., weekly, biweekly, monthly, etc.). I will designate a "start" and "end" date or the number of times the transfer is to recur. The Processing Date will be the effective date I entered for the transfer, or the next business day should the effective date fall on a weekend or holiday. Sufficient funds must be available by 12:00 midnight of the night before the Processing Date, but will be deducted from my checking account on the actual Processing Date. "Recurring" transactions may be canceled or changed up until 12:00 midnight of the night before the Processing Date. See Section I -Stopping or Modifying Online Banking Pre-Authorized Interbank Transfers - below regarding how to stop "Recurring" transfers.

The "Transfer Date" is the date we will attempt to deduct the transfer amount from your designated account. If the attempted transfer fails because you did not have enough funds in your designated checking account we will notify you. In addition, you may view a failed transfer online in your account activity. A second attempt at the transaction may be made and, if it is not successful, the transaction will be cancelled and you will be responsible for rescheduling. If the second attempt at the transaction is successful, the transfer will be processed and remitted to the designated account, however the "Deliver by/Delivery date" will be on the next subsequent business day. If you receive notification because an attempted transfer failed, you may access your account activity through Online Banking to determine whether the second attempt at the transfer has been scheduled or contact of CustomerFirst Contact Center. If you schedule a transfer with the "Transfer Date" date as the current date, you must have adequate funds in your account at the time the transfer is scheduled. The funds will be deducted immediately. If you schedule a transfer as a "Future Dated (One Time)" there must be adequate funds in your account when we attempt the transfer.

"Deliver By/Delivery Date" date is the date that you can expect the designated account to receive your transfer.

7. Internal and External Transfers

You may transfer funds electronically between certain of accounts at the Bank through Online Banking ("Internal Transfers"). Account transfers may only be made between your accounts in which you have an ownership interest and include checking, statement savings, and money market accounts. All these accounts must be in your name and Taxpayer Identification Number.

You may also transfer funds between your designated account(s) at the Bank and other accounts in your name and Taxpayer Identification Number that you own at other financial institutions within the United States of America ("External Transfers"). Within Online Banking, you must provide the name of the recipient financial institution, the account number, and the recipient financial institution's transit-routing number and confirm test deposits. For Transaction Modes and Processing timing see Section 6 - Transaction Modes and Processing Dates above. Funds transferred from other financial institutions will be available for withdrawal no later than the business day after the business day on which such funds are received. Funds transfers from other financial institutions designated as "Future (One Time)" or "Recurring" will be processed by 12:00 Noon on the effective date for provisional credit (i.e. for cash withdrawals at ATMs or Banking centers), and will post and be available by the next Banking day for payment of non-Online Banking transactions. If the effective date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, Bank holiday or Connecticut State or federal holiday, the transfer will occur on the next Banking day.

8. Stopping or Modifying Online Banking Pre-Authorized External Transfers

We may cancel an interbank transfer if we have reasonable belief that the transfer is fraudulent. If we cancel an interbank transfer, we may but are not required to contact you to inform you of this action. When you submit a transfer you authorize us to withdraw the necessary funds (including all applicable fees and charges) from your account that is designated. Interbank transfers designated as "Immediate" cannot be stopped, canceled, or changed once confirmed. Except as stated herein, in order to request that an Online Banking transfer designated as "Recurring", be stopped or changed you must do so within Online Banking. You may delete the scheduled transfer and create a new scheduled transfer if necessary. You must cancel the transfer within Online Banking by 12:00 midnight of the day before the scheduled Processing Date. (See Sections 6 and 7 above) The Bank will only accept a verbal or written notice to stop an Online Banking transaction if it relates to a payment designated as "Recurring" and only if the notice is received at the CustomerFirst Care Center no later than three (3) business days before the scheduled date of the transfer. If you call, the Bank may also require you to put your request in writing and deliver it to the Bank within ten (10) business days after you call. The written notice must detail whether the cancellation applies to only one (1) of the "Recurring" transactions, or all of the transactions in the "Recurring" stream. You understand that your written notice will only be accepted at the address and phone number listed in Section 22 of this Agreement. If you request a cancellation of a pre-authorized transaction from your personal account as set forth above and the Bank does not do so, the Bank will be liable only for the damages caused as explained in Section 15 of this Agreement.

If your preauthorized transfers may vary in amount, the transferee will tell you at least ten (10) days before each transfer, when it will be made, and how much it will be. You may choose instead to get this notice only when the transfer amount would differ by more than a certain amount from the previously transferred amount, or when the amount would fall outside of certain limits you choose to set.

2. Periodic Statements: Information concerning Online Banking transactions will be shown on your periodic statement for the account to and from transactions are made. Your periodic statement will be made available to you monthly, unless there are no electronic funds transfers in a particular month. In any case, if your account is a checking, savings, or money market, you will get a statement at least quarterly. You agree to review your periodic statement promptly upon receipt.

3. Recurring Deposits: If you have arranged to have deposits made to a deposit account at least once every sixty (60) days from the same person or company, you can find out whether or not the deposit has been made through Online Banking, or call the CustomerFirst Contact Center.

21. Electronic Communications

Because normal Internet email communications may not be secure, you agree to log into Online Banking and contact the Bank electronically only through a secure messaging service that we may make available to you for any inquiries or requests that you may have regarding your accounts. We will not take actions based on your email requests unless and until we actually receive your message and have a reasonable opportunity to act.

You should not rely on email if you need to communicate urgent information. If you send us electronic mail (“e-mail”), we may not receive or review it immediately. We will have a reasonable time to act upon any e-mail request or notice, and reserve the right to reject any transaction or request received by e-mail. You acknowledge that, even though e-mail may be encrypted, we cannot ensure that it will not be intercepted or affected by the actions or omissions of others, such as third party networks or persons with access to the Internet. As such, we highly recommend that you not send account data or other sensitive information to us by e-mail.

Your use of the Internet will be entirely at your own risk. We make no representation, warranty or endorsement with respect to: (a) information placed on the Internet by third parties; (b) the security or continued availability of the Internet or of any Internet website, including without limitation our website; or (c) the services, products or information made available over the Internet by others whose sites may be accessed, directly or indirectly, as a result of our Services. Our service providers and we assume no responsibility for viruses created by third parties, or for any third party's unauthorized access to, or use of, your computer system.

We reserve

the right to terminate your Online Banking services and/or privileges without notice for any reason, including, but not limited to your failure to pay any fee or charge required by this Agreement when due or if you do not comply with this Agreement.

IN NO EVENT SHALL WE OR OUR OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, EMPLOYEES OR AGENTS BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ANY LOSS INCURRED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, LOSS OF DATA, INJURY OR DAMAGES, WHETHER DIRECT, INDIRECT, SPECIAL INCIDENTAL, EXEMPLARY OR CONSEQUENTIAL, INCLUDING LOST PROFITS, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE SUBJECT MATTER HEREOF, EVEN IF WE HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH LOSS, INJURY, OR DAMAGES. SOME JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW THE EXCLUSION OR LIMITATION OF IMPLIED WARRANTIES OR LIABILITY FOR INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES SO THE ABOVE EXCLUSION OR LIMITATIONS MAY NOT APPLY TO YOU.

24. Equipment; Warranty Disclaimer; Security.

We agree to make reasonable efforts to ensure the full performance of Online Banking. You are responsible for providing and maintaining any equipment that is necessary for the Services, such as telephones (or other electronic devices acceptable to us), terminals, modems and computers. You agree to use equipment that is compatible with our programs, systems and equipment, which we may change from time to time. We assume no responsibility for the defects or incompatibility of any computers or software that you use in connection with the Services, even if we have previously approved their use. We will be responsible for acting only on those instructions which are actually received and cannot assume responsibility for malfunctions in communications facilities, equipment, devices or services not under our control that may affect the accuracy or timeliness of any message or instructions you send. WE MAKE NO WARRANTY CONCERNING ONLINE BANKING, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, IN LAW OR IN FACT, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR OF MERCHANTABILITY, OR NON INFRINGEMENT OF A THIRD PARTY OR PROPRIETARY RIGHTS UNLESS DISCLAIMING SUCH WARRANTIES IS PROHIBITED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

25. Governing Law

This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Connecticut, without reference to Connecticut's conflict of law provisions.

26. Severability

If any provision of this Agreement is held void or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction or any government agency, that provision will be considered enforceable to the extent permitted by such court or agency, and the remainder of that provision shall not longer be treated as part of this Agreement. All other provisions of this Agreement, will, however, remain in full force and effect.

III. Cash Management Services - Business Accounts Only

1. General.

In addition to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Section III – Cash Management Services - Business Accounts - governs certain Internet-based additional cash management services to be provided by Bank to business accountholders as well as functionalities specific to Online Banking for business accounts. Those services permit business accountholders to obtain certain business account information reporting, electronic wire and funds transfer services as applicable, and other account maintenance functions, such as requesting stop payments on checks (each is a “Service” and collectively “Services” or “Cash Management Services”). Except as otherwise defined in any schedules, exhibits or additional agreements incorporated herein, the term “business day” means Monday through Friday, excluding Saturday, Sunday, bank holidays and Connecticut state and federal holidays. As used in this Agreement, including any addendums, schedules or additional agreements incorporated in this Agreement, the terms “we”, “us”, and “our” refer to Bank and the terms “you”, “your” and “customer” refers to the business accountholder and or business account.

2. Services.

We will notify you when the Services you request will become available to you. If you request additional Services in the future, they will also be governed by this Agreement, unless we advise you otherwise.

We may require you to enter into a separate agreement in connection with a particular Service provided under this Agreement. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and an agreement for a particular Service, the agreement provided in connection with such Service shall control with regard to the conflicting provisions.

3. Accounts.

Your application for access to the Services may list certain Bank accounts that you wish to access with the Services. If it includes the accounts of your parent company, subsidiaries or affiliates, you warrant that they have authorized you to access their accounts through the Services in the same manner as your own accounts. You agree to provide us with their written authorization, in form and substance acceptable to us, evidencing that authority, and to notify us immediately in writing of any change to that authorization.

You will need to designate certain accounts for specific purposes in connection with some of the Services by using the account designation and linking function of Online Banking. If you link more than one checking account to our wire or ACH Services, for example, you will need to specify the accounts from which transfers should be made.

The Administrator will designate which accounts will be utilized for Service payments and transfers. If your Administrator designates an account that requires more than one signature for the withdrawal or transfer of funds, you agree that we may act upon any Service instruction that is accompanied by the security code(s) designated by you or your Administrator for that account and the Service in question. Note: This may mean that we will act upon the instruction of any ONE person (e.g., to wire funds), even though the signature card for the account in question requires two or more signatures on checks. As long as an instruction is accompanied by the designated security codes, the transaction will be deemed authorized by you.

4. Fees.

You agree to pay us the fees we establish for each of the Services. We may amend our Service pricing from time to time and certain prices are subject to change without prior notice. Special or additional Services performed at your request will be subject to such additional terms and fees as you and we may agree. If your accounts with us are analyzed by us for the purpose of determining any earnings credits we may make available to you, you may be able to use your available earnings credit to offset certain Service charges. If your analyzed accounts contain funds belonging to third parties, you represent that your use of any related earnings credit is not limited by law, regulation or agreement with such third parties.

In addition to the Service fees, you agree to pay for all taxes, tariffs and assessments levied or imposed by any government agency in connection with the Services, this Agreement, and/or the software or equipment made available to you (excluding any income tax payable by us). You also are responsible for the costs of any communication lines and any data processing charges payable to third parties.

5. Access to Account Data.

Some of the Services provide you with balance and other account information. Since certain information and transactions are not processed by us until after the close of each business day, some transactions may not be reflected in the system until the next business day. Posted items may be reversed due to insufficient funds, stop payment orders, legal process, and other reasons. Certain balances also may not be subject to immediate withdrawal. We assume no responsibility for any loss arising from incomplete information or for any temporary interruption in our information system. If you are unable to access the Online Banking System for any reason, you can contact our Customer First Contact Center for assistance.

6. Information Processing and Reporting.

We offer a number of Services that require us to receive, process, and report information involving your accounts and transactions. We will not be responsible for determining the accuracy, timeliness or completeness of any information that you or others provide to us. We will not have a duty to interpret the content of any data transmitted to us, except to the limited extent set forth in this Agreement. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, we will not be required (by means of any security procedure or otherwise) to detect errors in the transmission or content of any information we receive from you or third parties.

a. Information You Provide to Us.

You assume the sole responsibility for providing us with complete and accurate information in the form and format that we require (e.g., in connection with wire and ACH transfers or positive pay and account reconciliation). We are not responsible for confirming such information, or for monitoring or refusing to process duplicate instructions by you or your agents. For example, if you give us a wire transfer instruction that is incorrect in any way, you agree that we may charge your account for the payment whether or not the error could have been detected by us. We are not obligated to detect errors in your transfer, or payment instructions.

b. Your Instructions.

You must accurately describe transaction beneficiaries, intermediary financial institutions, and the beneficiary's financial institution in transfer and payment instructions. If you describe any beneficiary or institution inconsistently by name and number, other institutions and we may process the transaction solely on the basis of the number, even if the number identifies a person or entity different from the named beneficiary or institution.

c. Your Review.

You acknowledge that it is not possible for the Services to be totally free from operator, programming or equipment error, and that errors in processing and compiling data may occasionally occur (e.g., due to the failure of others to provide accurate information, telecommunication failures, or a breakdown in an electronic data interchange). As such, you agree to review and verify all results and to maintain adequate controls for insuring both the accuracy of data transmissions and the detection of errors. Unless otherwise required by law, our sole responsibility for any reporting errors caused by us will be to reprocess the information for the period in question and to provide corrected reports at our own expense. You agree to maintain adequate backup files of the data you submit for a reasonable period of time in order to facilitate any needed reconstruction of your transactions (e.g., in the event of a telecommunication failure). If we are unable to provide a Service for any reason, we will promptly inform you of the problem and will take reasonable steps to resume processing.

7. Reliance on Third Parties.

Our ability to provide certain Services (e.g., in connection with electronic data interchange) is dependent upon our ability to obtain or provide access to third party networks. In the event any third party network is unavailable or we determine, in our discretion, that we cannot continue providing any third party network access, we may discontinue the related Service or may provide the Service through an alternate third party network. In such situations, we will have no liability for the unavailability of access. We will not be responsible for any services you receive from third party vendors.

8. Security Procedures

You acknowledge and agree to comply with and keep confidential these security procedures and any additional security procedures, operating procedures, and/or user guides that we may provide, applicable to Online Banking generally or to a specific service, that shall be incorporated herein and considered a part hereof and shall be referred to collectively as "Security Procedures." Each time you make a transfer or payment with Online Banking and/or cash management services, you represent and warrant that the Security Procedures described in this section are commercially reasonable (based on the normal size, type, and frequency of your transactions).

a. Permissions.

Different levels of permission and limitations may be assigned by account owners. Your failure to set such permissions and limitations and implement such controls increases your exposure to, and responsibility for, unauthorized transactions. The individual that is registering for Online Banking (the "Administrator") has the authority to determine the individuals who will be authorized to use the Services ("Administrators" and "Authorized Users") and the levels of permissions granted within the Online Banking system. The Administrator may authorize other users and control their scope of activities by designating user levels, access levels and account settings. For example, an Administrator can establish limits on each Authorized User's authority to access information and conduct transactions. The Administrator can also establish permissions equal to that of the Administrator and that may override the Administrator. You assume full and sole responsibility for the actions of your Administrator, the authority he or she gives others to act on your behalf, and the actions of the Authorized Users designated by you or any other Administrator to use the Services. If you are no longer on the signature card for each linked account, authorized to designate signers for each such account, you have the obligation to inform us of the new individuals with such authority by contacting the CustomerFirst Contact Center at (203) 462-4400 Monday through Friday (excluding bank holidays) from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. or by writing to us at First County Bank, Attention: Manager of Cash Management Services, 117 Prospect Street, Stamford, CT 06901.

b. Passwords and Log In Credentials.

You will establish a User ID(s) and/or passwords (collectively, a "Security Code") to access the Services. For ACH and wire transfer services, we will issue secure tokens to you to be used by the Administrator and Authorized Users as an additional security measure when accessing ACH and wire services. You agree to take reasonable steps to safeguard the confidentiality and security of the Security Code, secure tokens, and any other proprietary property or information we provide to you in connection with the Services; to closely and regularly monitor the activities of your Administrator and Authorized Users who access the Services, including the practices of such persons in protecting User IDs and passwords; and to notify us immediately if you have any reason to believe the security or confidentiality required by this provision has been or may be breached. You agree to change the passwords you assign to your Administrator and Authorized Users on a regular basis, but no less frequently than every 90 days. You agree to change your temporary passwords promptly after you are given access to the Services for the first time and whenever anyone who has had access to your Security Code is no longer employed or authorized by you to use the Services. We may require you to change your Security Code at any time. We may deny access to the Services without prior notice if we are unable to confirm (to our satisfaction) any person's authority to access the Services or if we believe such action is necessary for security reasons.

c. Transaction Accuracy and Validity.

Security Procedures are not designed for the detection of errors (e.g., duplicate payments or errors in your fund transfer instructions). We will not be obligated to detect errors by you or others, even if we take certain actions from time to time to do so. You agree to be bound by any transfer or payment order we receive through the Services, even if the order is not authorized by you, if it includes your Security Codes or is otherwise processed by us in accordance with our Security Procedures.

d. Risk Controls.

You represent and warrant that in connection with your use of the Services you will establish and maintain operational controls, risk management practices and hiring and training practices that meet industry standards.

e. Notice of Unauthorized Use.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, you represent and warrant that you will monitor the accounts you link to the Services for any unauthorized activity on a daily basis and will report such unauthorized activity to us immediately.

9. Financial Information and Audit.

We may from time to time request financial information from you in order to evaluate continuation of the Services to be provided by us hereunder and/or adjustment of any limits set by this Agreement. We may also from time to time request information regarding your operations in order to evaluate your use of the Services and any risks your operations may pose to the Bank. You agree to provide the requested financial and operational information immediately upon our request, in the form we require. You authorize us to investigate or reinvestigate at any time any information provided by you in connection with this Agreement or the Service and to request reports from credit bureaus and reporting agencies for such purpose. Upon our request, you authorize us to enter your business premises at reasonable times for the purpose of ensuring that you are complying with this Agreement and you specifically authorize us to perform an audit of your operational controls, risk management practices, staffing and the need for training and ongoing support, and information technology infrastructure. You acknowledge and agree that we have the right to mandate specific internal controls at your location(s) and that you shall comply with any such mandate. In addition, you agree to allow us to review available reports of independent audits performed for you related to information technology, the Services and any associated operational processes. You agree that if we so request, you will complete a self-assessment of your operations, management, staff, systems, internal controls, training and risk management practices that we would otherwise review in an audit of Customer. If you refuse to provide the requested financial information, or if we conclude, in our sole discretion, that the risk you pose to us is unacceptable, or if you refuse to give us access to your premises, we may terminate the Service according to the provisions hereof.

10. Wire Transfer Service.

This Service allows you to make transfers of funds from your accounts through wire transfer. If you are approved for our Wire Transfer Service, you must enter into a separate agreement, the terms and conditions of which are incorporated into this Agreement.

You may instruct our electronic system to make transfers between your accounts at any time on any day, except when the Online Banking System is unavailable for maintenance or is experience an interruption in service.

13. Account Reconciliation Service.

If you are approved for this Service, and you provide us with a list of the serial numbers and the exact amount (dollars and cents) of the checks that you issue, we will compare the list with the information that is encoded on items presented to us for payment against your designated account. If you are approved for our Account Reconciliation Service, you must enter into a separate agreement with us, the terms and conditions of which are incorporated into this Agreement.

14. Positive Pay Service.

If you are approved for this Service, you can instruct us not to pay certain items presented against your accounts. If you are approved for our Positive Pay Service, you must enter into a separate agreement with us, the terms and conditions of which are incorporated into this Agreement.

15. Stop Payment Service.

You may stop payment on a check by providing us with timely, complete and accurate information on: the number of the account in question; the date of the item; the item number; the payee information; and the EXACT amount of the item (dollars and cents). If any information is incomplete or incorrect, we will not be responsible for failing to stop payment on the item. Requests become effective when we confirm their receipt and have verified that the item has not been paid. From time-to-time, the on-line system may be inoperable. If that occurs, your request can be communicated to us by telephone (or other electronic means acceptable to us), or in writing.

16. Amending/Canceling a Transaction.

Unless this Agreement or your User Guide provides otherwise, you do not have a right to cancel or amend a payment or transfer instruction (e.g., an ACH payment) once we have received it. If we attempt to reverse a transaction at your request, we assume no liability for any interest or losses that result if the reversal is not effected. Requests to cancel a transaction must state the exact amount (dollars and cents) of the transaction you wish to stop. You agree to indemnify, defend, hold harmless and reimburse us for all expenses, losses, claims, actions, proceedings and damages we incur in effecting or attempting to effect any reversal. You are solely responsible for providing notice to the receiver/beneficiary that a reversal is being transmitted and the reason for the reversal no later than the settlement date of the reversing entry.

We may notify you electronically, in writing, by telephone (or other electronic means acceptable to us), or otherwise if any funds transfer is rejected or returned (e.g., by the Fed) for any reason. We will not be obligated to credit your account with any interest, unless the return is caused by our failure to properly execute your instruction.

19. Unauthorized Transactions.

We may process any payment or transfer instruction (including an amendment or cancellation instruction) that we believe is transmitted or authorized by you if we act in compliance with the Security Procedures (e.g., we obtain the Security Code) you and we have agreed upon for the Service. The instructions will be deemed effective as if made by you, and you will be obligated to pay us in the amount of such transactions, even though they are not transmitted or authorized by you.

We may elect to verify the authenticity or content of any instruction, as an alternative security procedure, by placing a call to any authorized signer on your account or any other person designated by you for that purpose. If we are unable to verify an instruction to our satisfaction, we may reject the instruction.

Instructions received after the cutoff hour or on a non-business day may be deemed received as of the next business day. Services may occasionally be unavailable due to needed maintenance or system/network interruptions.

22. Limitation of Liability.

Except as otherwise stated in this Agreement, we will be liable to you only for damages arising directly from our intentional misconduct or gross negligence in the performance of the Services. We will not be responsible or liable for actual costs and losses resulting from our actions and/or omissions or your remedy for said costs and losses, whether the claim is in contract or tort.

Any claim, action or proceeding by you to enforce the terms of this Agreement or to recover for any Service-related loss must be commenced within one year from the date that the event giving rise to the claim, action or proceeding first occurs. You agree to cooperate with us in any loss recovery efforts we undertake to reduce any loss or liability that arises in connection with your Services.

You agree to retain and provide to us, upon request, all information necessary to remake or reconstruct any deposit, transmission, file or entry until six (60) months following receipt by us of the deposit, file, entry, transmission, or other order affecting an account.

26. Termination.

You or we may terminate this Agreement as to some or all of the Services, with or without cause, by giving 30 days prior notice to the other party. You will be solely responsible for the acts and omissions of such agents. You agree to indemnify, defend and hold us harmless from any actions, claims, proceedings, damages, losses and costs which you or we incur as a result of their actions or omissions.

b. Amendments.

We may amend (add to, delete or change) the terms of this Agreement, the Service fees, and User Guides by providing you with prior notice. We may amend our Security Procedures without prior notice to you if immediate changes are required for security reasons or the changes do not have a material affect on your use of the Services.

You agree not to initiate any wire transfer, ACH entry or payment that would violate the economic sanctions administered by the U.S. Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control. Each time you use the Services you represent and warrant that such use is for lawful purposes.

d. Entire Agreement; Conflicting Provisions.

This Agreement supplements (and supersedes where inconsistent) the terms of your deposit agreement with us. This Agreement, any agreements we require in connection with a particular Service and your deposit agreement with us constitute the entire agreement between you and us with respect to the Services. Any agreements we enter into with you for a particular Service are incorporated within the Agreement by this reference. In the event of any conflict between a provision of this Agreement and a provision contained in an agreement for a particular Service, the provision contained in the agreement for the particular Service shall control.

f. Assignment.

We may assign our rights and delegate our duties under this agreement to a company affiliated with us or to a third party. You may not assign any right or delegate any obligation under this Agreement without our prior written consent.

g. No Third Party Beneficiaries.

This Agreement is made for the exclusive benefit of you and us. No third party has any rights under this Agreement.

Unless you have our prior written consent, you may not use the Services to process transactions for third parties or permit others to initiate Service transactions on your behalf.

i. Overdrafts.

When you transmit a transfer or payment request to us, you authorize us to charge your account for the amount indicated. If your account does not have sufficient available funds, we may reject the transaction. Our allowance of any overdraft will not obligate us to honor future overdrafts at a later time, and we may refuse to do so without cause or prior notice. We may charge a fee for each payment or transfer request presented against insufficient available funds.

j. Security Interest.

You grant us a security interest in your Bank accounts to secure the repayment of any overdraft or other obligation that you incur under this Agreement.

k. Validity.

If any provision of this Agreement is found to be void or invalid, the remainder of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect.

l. Waivers.

Our waiver of any power, right, remedy or obligation herein will not be deemed a waiver of other right, powers, remedies or obligations or of the same right at another time. We may require that any waiver by us of any right granted herein be provided to you in writing to be effective.
